

Medicine Buddha Puja Altar Set Up

Puja Sadhana is in the Silver Prayer Book starting on pg. 101
(extensive dedications are optional)

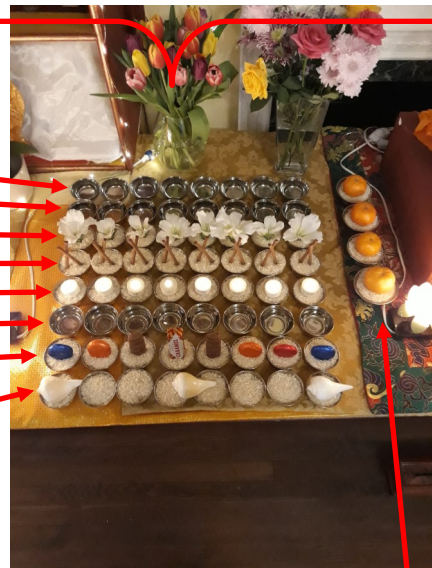

Medicine Buddha Thangka
(hangs in the East Wing in the last room on the right)

Flower offering (optional/if possible)

4 offering bowls with rice and Torma (nectarines)

8 rows of 8 offering bowls each
(each vertical line is for one of the 7 Medicine Buddhas + Shakyamuni Buddha) | | | | | | | | | | (Torma)

- 1st row: water (drinking)
- 2nd row: water (washing)
- 3rd row: rice + flowers
- 4th row: rice + incense
- 5th row: rice + light
- 6th row: water (perfume)
- 7th row: rice + food (chocolate bars etc.)
- 8th row: rice + music (conch shell)

1 vertical row of 4 bowls: rice + Torma (nectarines)

Flowers from bouquet on altar

Metal bowls under the altar
(8 x 8 bowls = 64 bowls + 4 bowls (Torma) = 68 bowls)

If the Puja is done on behalf of somebody who is sick or died, or it was requested and offered by someone extensive offerings can be arranged and at the end

